

Ketterer Kunst Donates Online Only Auction Fees

€ 45,000 FOR CHILDREN
IN THE UKRAINE

Munich, March 16, 2022, (kk) – Ketterer Kunst decided to react quickly earlier this month: The ongoing monthly Online Only Auction “Printastic“ was turned into a benefit auction without further ado. The total amount of the buyer’s premium was to be donated.

A total of 45,000 Euro was raised for children in the Ukraine. The donation will be given to SAVE THE CHILDREN right this week. This non governmental organization has been active in the field of children’s rights in the Ukraine since many years.

“In light of the dramatic course of the war events in the Ukraine, we can’t just stand aside and do nothing. A situation like this calls for immediate aid“, says Robert Ketterer, auctioneer and company owner. “I am extremely happy about the ideas, the helpfulness and the spirit everyone on my team showed. We all hope to make a contribution to relieve the distress of the children.“

The Online Only Benefit Auction “Printastic“ focused on works on paper from national and international artists. Bidders from all over Europe and the USA also showed strong interest in works by Horst Antes, Joseph Beuys, Marc Chagall, Damien Hirst, Wassily Kandinsky, Otto Mueller, A.R. Penck, Gerhard Richter, Antoni Tàpies and Günther Uecker.
